

Isha volunteers, Wipro staff Clean Ch'Hill

Mysore, Nov.4-Isha Foundation in collaboration with the employees of Wipro Infotech had organised the third Clean Chamundi Programmme on Nov. 1 to mark Kannada Rajyotsava celebrations.

A total of 53 people participated in the programme and collected 60 bags (about 250 kgs) of non-biodegradable waste from the hill. The programme saw the enthusiastic participation of Wipro employees.

Manas, an Isha volunteer who has been participating in all the Clean Chamundi programmes, opined that 'Corporates like Wipro must take part in such events on a regular basis as it would not only help them educate their own employees but would also create awareness in society.'

Sharing her experience, Prameela, a Wipro employee, opined, "It was a wonderful experience and I am happy to contribute to such a noble cause. I would like to thank Isha for giving me such an opportunity."

* Manjunath Pai opined that such initiatives must become an ongoing activity and we must educate more number of people to safeguard our environment.

Poonam Ananth opined: "A noble way to serve mother nature. Let us make this world a better place for you, me and the entire human race. Thanks Isha for the Clean Chamundi initiative."
