

SHEKHAR'S QUEST FOR SPIRITUAL BLISS

SHEKHAR Kapoor, who recently declared that he has started work for his latest film Paani, is also on a spiritual journey. The Oscar-nominated director has joined the Isha Group Foundation and has been hugely influenced by Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudeva. "I have been a spiritual person rather than being religious. But the spiritual connection has definitely helped me answer many questions about myself," says Shekhar. "It has helped me control the desires which eventually become demons and kill creativity. Currently I am in a state of bliss." We earnestly hope that the director, notorious for procrastinating, sustains it long enough to finish Paani, expected to star Hrithik Roshan.

