

Isha gains UN recognition

Isha Foundation, an international voluntary organisation, has been granted Special Consultative Status by the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) of the United Nation at its substantive session of July 2007 in Geneva. Isha foundation has been selected to work closely with ECOSOC. It would coordinate with the specialised agencies of the UN in implementing economic and social projects. Established by Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev, the foundation has been implementing several large-scale public service programmes.
